

BOOKS BEHIND BARS:

Life, Literature and Leadership

DATE: October 1, 2019

TIME: 11:00 a.m.-12:45 p.m.

LOCATION: Student Commons, Richmond Salons, 907 Floyd Ave.

For special accommodations, please contact Katherine Huynh at (804) 827-0867, or at huynhkp@vcu.edu.

Join us for a viewing of “Seats at the Table,” a feature documentary that depicts a unique college class which brings together university students with residents of a maximum-security juvenile correctional center through the study of Russian literature. The film reveals the common humanity shared by disparate groups when the opportunity to form relationships to bridge differences is created by an innovative educator.

VCU

L. Douglas Wilder School of Government and Public Affairs